

Nursing Care

When John went into hospital for an examination he got cared for in ways he never expected, by a very friendly older nurse

mF, oral, anal

When I was seventeen I had to go into hospital for a small operation. The doctors thought something was not quite right in my stomach, so they decided to have a look with one of these clever keyhole devices, which meant making two tiny holes in my abdomen and having a poke around. I was told to arrive in the evening and was put into a small ward on my own. One of the nurses showed me the room and told me to get my pyjamas on. A bit later she came back and said she was going to shave me. I said I had already shaved that morning and she said "Not your face, silly, your tum has to be shaved before the operation, so drop your trousers and lie on the bed for me"

She was a nice looking lady about fifty years old, nicely rounded without being fat. I was glad she wasn't one of the young ones; I'd have been really embarrassed. Anyway, I laid down with everything on show, and she put on some surgical gloves and took out a little electric razor and started to shave me. She started fairly high but then gradually got closer and closer to my pubes, and then started to shave right down to the root of my penis. As she did so she was stretching the skin with her free hand, and her wrist was resting on my penis. She moved it gently as she worked, and I could feel it rubbing on me and that I was starting to get a bit hard.

My penis is quite long but is normally quite thin when it is quiet, but when it is getting a hard on, it gets very thick, and I was feeling a bit worried. Her wrist was rubbing me, then she let her hand fall on it to hold it down, but of course just the opposite happened. I felt totally embarrassed and I spluttered to say I was sorry. She replied "Don't be sorry, it's flattering for someone of my age to have a young lad like you getting a hard. Let me just tidy up, and we'll see what we can do" I wondered what she meant, but I soon found out.

She tidied up all my hair and then said, "That's a very fine cock you've got there". She peeled off the plastic gloves and then gently stroked around my shaven belly and down to my cock and let just a single finger rub lightly up and down the shaft. I watched my cock grow fatter till it was fully erect, and she said "It's even bigger than I thought" Then she slid her hand right round the shaft and slowly moved it up and down, always going a bit further down than up so my foreskin was gradually pulled right back until the glans was fully displayed.

Although I had had messed about with a couple of girls, I really knew nothing about sex, and had never had a girl touch my cock with her hand, so this was getting me very rapidly aroused. I could see a little bead of fluid on the end and I knew I would soon come. I asked her to stop but she said, "Why, don't you like it?" I didn't know what to say and she said "It's because you are afraid of coming, isn't it" and I nodded. "Don't worry, just relax and enjoy it. Your knob is lovely, that bright shiny end is like a lollipop". I said "Well, you wouldn't want to lick it anyway" "Why not" she replied, and bent over me with her tongue out and licked the drop off the end, then licked up and down my glistening knob. She then started to give me little sucking bites on my foreskin, and by this time I was throbbing with pleasure. She looked up and said "I think it's good enough to eat" then slowly, slowly slid her lips right over my knob and half way down the shaft. She started to slide up and down, but almost at once I exploded. I tried to pull away, but she held me in her mouth till I spurted again and again.

At last, she slid away from me and sat up and smiled, and then swallowed. "You taste good, I've saved a bit for you" and she leaned over and kissed me with her lovely lips apart so I could feel the cum round my lips, then she slid her tongue in so I could taste for myself. "That was an education for you, did you enjoy it" I said it was bloody marvellous. She then got a flannel, washed around, giving me a gentle stroke in the process, and left me.

Next morning I had the examination, and later in the day I was told that there was nothing wrong, and to go home in the morning. That night I couldn't sleep for thinking of the night before, and I had to have a good wank to relieve myself, but it wasn't a patch on having my cock in her mouth. The next morning I was called early and told to get ready to leave, as they needed my bed. I went to the nurse's desk to say goodbye, and there she was, smiling at me. I blushed, but she asked me how I was getting home and when I said on the bus, she said she could give me a lift as she had just finished her shift. I sat in the car beside her and could not believe that this middle-aged lady had given me the best thrill I had in my short life. Soon the car stopped, and she said that this was her flat, did I want to come in for a coffee.

We went in to a nice room where she made a coffee and went into the bedroom. A few minutes later she came out, and she had taken off her uniform and put on a light summer skirt and blouse. Her body was very nicely rounded, not fat but with full breasts and bum, and as she walked around the room the cheeks of her arse moved beautifully. Her skirt was just above her knees, and when she sat in the chair opposite me and crossed her legs I got a glimpse of lovely rounded thighs.

When we had drunk our coffee, she went into the other room and came back holding a swimsuit. It was cut very high, and she asked if I liked it. I said yes, and she said that it showed off a lot of her pubic hair. "How would you like to return the compliment and shave me"? I said yes, of course, thinking she was joking, but I was wrong. She led me into the bedroom, laid a big towel on the bed, and gave me the same razor she had used to shave me. Then she undid her skirt, and let it drop. Underneath she was naked, and I looked at her lovely dark curly bush.

"I'm not sure how much to have off, shall I leave a strip over my fanny, or shall you shave it all off? I think I'll have it all off, I can always grow it again" By this time I was getting a good hard, I'd never really looked at a bare pussy, the idea of putting my hands on it was really getting to me. Helen noticed the state I was in and said, hang on, you'll damage me if you get over excited. She undid my belt and slid my jeans and underpants down, and took hold of me. This time she slid my foreskin right back, then took a tube of KY jelly out of a drawer and covered my knob. Then she stroked and slid over my knob until I was ready to burst, when she took a tissue and wanked me hard till I came into her other hand. "Right, now to business" she said, and lay down on the towel.

I took the razor and started to shave the top of her pubes, but it wasn't cutting very well. She told me to stretch the skin like I would on my face and I found that my hand was getting close to her crack, and I was really nervous. She "You've never got this close to a pussy before, have you, I don't think you've ever seen one properly - are you still a virgin?" I admitted that I was, so she said I'd better have a good look and she'd tell me all about it, and she lifted her knees and opened her legs wide. I had seen photos in porn magazines, but this was the first time I had seen the real thing, and there it was, all pink and shiny. "This is my vagina, to use the technical word, but I always say it is my pussy. Here, give me your hand", and she took my fingers and slid two of them in between her lips. I don't know what I expected, but this wet slippery feeling took me by surprise and I said "It's all wet" "That's to make it nice and easy to slide in and out of, and it gets really juicy when I am excited". Then she slid my fingers out and up and said "There's my peehole, but it's not very obvious and you needn't bother about it. But this is the interesting bit. She fingered the bulge at the top of her slit and said, "This is the clitoris, I call it my clitty, and it's there just to give me pleasure. Men can wank themselves with their cocks, women can do it by rubbing their clitties. Go on feel it, and stroke it". I did as she said, and I could feel it starting to stiffen under my fingers. "That's lovely, now get me shaved, but you don't need to worry which bit of me you are touching"

I went back to the razor, but this time I let my hand stray into her crack while I stretched her skin, and soon she was hairless. I brushed the hair off, took the towel away, then she said "You had better make sure you have made a good job" I ran my hand over her, but she said "The best way is to feel it with your tongue - go on, down you go". I thought she was joking, but bent down and licked her shaven pussy. I could smell her musky odour, and was going to stop when she pushed my head down so that I was against her slit and she said "Lick my clitty please" and spread her legs wide again. I gently touched her with my tongue, and I heard her make a little noise. "Suck it, bite it, don't be so gentle". I did as I was told, and her clit swelled till I could suck it well into my mouth. "Put your fingers into my pussy, not just one, it's big enough for a baby to get out, so fill me up" I slid first two, then three, then four fingers into her. By now, she was much wetter, and I could feel her juices starting to run on my hand. "Quick, put your tongue in it", so I spread her lips and thrust my tongue in and licked her, while I squeezed her clitty with my hand. Suddenly, her legs closed round my head, and I was held in that hot, wet grip while her body started to thrust against my face, till she relaxed and released me. "Come and kiss me, you wonderful boy" and pulled me up to her face. Her tongue was in my mouth, her teeth nibbling at my lips, so I did the same till she pulled back and said, "You smell of pussy - it's nice"

Then she rolled away from me and told me to lie down on my back. I had got a nice hard on, and she just looked at it and said, "That's the most beautiful thing I've ever seen, and it's brand new and unused." She got on her knees at the bottom of the bed and gave my cock a long gentle suck, then pushed the foreskin back with her lips. Then she started to move slowly up my body, kissing and licking my belly, then my chest, sucking hard on each nipple, and then she kissed my neck and then my mouth - just a soft gentle kiss. By this time my cock was really hard, and she moved so that her pussy was above it. She moved down very slowly so that my cock was against her clit, and she rubbed against it for a moment before moving so that her pussy was touching my knob, and she eased herself down so that the top half of my throbbing knob entered her. Then she withdrew, so that we were not touching, but quickly eased down again so that my knob was right inside. Up again and down, but this time she did not stop until I was right inside her and she was sitting on me. "How does that feel?" I could hardly speak, I had never thought it could be that good to get my cock into this hot slippery, velvety, wonderful place. "Don't move till I tell you, I'm going to fuck you".

It was hard to believe that this respectable middle age lady was astride me with my cock buried deep in her pussy. She had still got her blouse on, but she sat up on me and undid the buttons and took it off. Then she put her hands behind her back and unfastened her bra. "Take it off for me, please" I put my hands on her shoulders and slid the straps down, and pulled the bra away from her breasts. "Well, what do you think?" Her breasts were full and firm, her nipples pointing a little down. Her skin was quite brown - I found out later that she sunbathed naked - but the ring round her big nipples was quite dark. She put my hands on her breasts, and I stroked and squeezed them. Then she took my finger and rubbed it across her nipples, and as I continued to do it they grew firm and I started to squeeze and pull them. "Harder, I'll tell you if it hurts", so I started to squeeze and twist them till she cried out with pleasure, and took my hands away and leaned forward so her breasts were close to my face "Suck me hard, bite me" so I sucked her nipple as far as I could into my mouth and tongued as hard as I could, then started biting till she said that that was enough.

She drew back and sat up, and she put her hand down to her pussy and started to rub her clitty. "Let me do that, I said" "No, watch me, I'm going to wank myself - it's best when there's a prick inside". She got more and more aroused, and I could feel the spasms through her pussy and against my cock, and soon she gave a little scream and collapsed down against me. After a few moments she was up again, kneeling over me and moving up and down, slowly at first then quicker. I was nearly ready to come, when she told me to move as well. I grabbed her arse and as she came down I pushed up against her, till I could feel my cum rushing into her and I thrust again and again till I was empty, and I realised that she was moaning with joy. She lowered her whole body against me and we gradually relaxed as my cock softened.

After a bit she sat up and pulled off my limp cock and started to kneel her way up the bed until her pussy was above my face. The lips were parted and she was dripping with my cum and her juice, and she slowly lowered herself so that my face was against her and the wetness of us ran against me. "See what we taste like together," she said, and I licked up the wetness and loved the smell and the taste of it. Soon she withdrew and said "Let's go and shower - I'm a bit sweaty" She was right, her body had been glistening with sweat while she was fucking me, so I followed her into the bathroom. There was a big walk in shower, and she set the water and pulled me in with her.

She took a bottle of gel and started to spread it over me, making a lather over my chest and stomach. Then she washed my legs, and finally put more gel in her hand and started to rub it around my cock and balls, sliding back my foreskin and washing my knob carefully. I was a bit stiff, but not really hard, when she started to wash my back. She started at the shoulders and gradually worked down to my buttocks. Here she washed with two hands, round and round but all the time pushing a little further into my crack, till at last her fingers started to rub my arsehole. I wasn't expecting this, and when she took her hand away I thought she had finished, but she put some more gel on her hand and went straight back to the same place. Her hand was slippery and she pushed her finger against me and said "Relax, and let me in". I had been tensing my arse against her, but then I relaxed, and her finger slid into me, and she moved in and out. This was another surprise from her, and my cock was instantly as hard as iron. She took it in her other hand and moved the two hands in unison, with my foreskin back and the gel making things slippery. She held me firmly and moved fast, and I soon gave a shout and shot my load in a great spurt. After that she rinsed me off and pulled my foreskin back where it belonged and said, "Now you do me"

I soaped her shoulders and breasts, and massaged her nipples until they were firm and sticking out. Then I soaped her belly for a long time. She was not fat but her belly was nicely rounded, and she loved it as I caressed, and gradually approached her pussy, but I went on down her lovely long legs, and washed each foot in turn. Then I washed up the inside of her legs until I finally got to her pussy. There was a stool in the shower, so I told her to put one foot on it so she opened herself up to me. I soaped all around her lips, then found her clitty and rubbed it till it was firm, then with the other hand I slid into her lovely pussy, all four fingers and she squealed with joy. The gel bottle was of smooth plastic, and I took that and pushed it against her "That's too big" "It's not as big as a baby's head" I replied and pushed a little harder, and it slowly went into her pussy, and I moved it in and out, while I rubbed her clitty hard. She was gasping and saying no, don't, then she made a long moan and I knew she had come, and I withdrew the bottle. "How did you know that would do that?" "I just guessed" "Well, you can keep on guessing like that for as long as you like. Now wash my back"

I started with her shoulders and soaped and rubbed her going a little further down with each stroke, till I got to her arse. This was firm and round and I spent a long time, always going a little further into her crack. "Go on, do the same for me as I did for you". so I finally came to her bumhole. Fresh gel on my fingers and I gently increased the pressure till she opened for me and I slid a finger inside. "There's room for more," she said, so I pushed in a second and a third. Her muscles grasped me, and I could feel all the heat from inside her as I finger fucked her, at the same time rubbing her breasts and squeezing her nipples. "Would you like to fuck my arse?" "I'll try anything, I said" and pulled out my fingers. She bent over and took hold of the stool, so her lovely arse was opened up to me. She told me to put some gel on her arsehole and on my cock to make it slippery, and then I put my cock against her. I had got a huge hard, and my cock looked bigger than I had ever seen it, but I started to push against her. I watched the tip start to go in, and she was making little noises, so I pushed a bit more till all the knob was in, then gradually eased the full length inside "Oh God," she cried "you are bloody huge. Just rest there a minute while I get used to it. I stayed still, but slid my hand round and started rubbing her clitty quite hard. Then I put my fingers into her pussy; it was streaming wet, with the soap and her juice. I could feel my cock with my fingers and I started to move it gently, she didn't complain so I went at her harder and harder, and she was pushing back at me. Her pussy had been a lovely warm soft place, but her arse was much firmer, and her muscles gripped me tightly, making me harder than ever. When I was nearly there I pulled right out, then rammed back in as hard as I could. She screamed, and I thought I had hurt her but she was pushing back at me hard as I shot my spunk deep into her arse, jerking again and again. "That was bloody marvellous, but I don't think I'll be able to sit down for a bit without remembering you. Your cock is much bigger than I have ever had in my arse, now it's time for a little break" I had gone a bit limp by then, so I slid out, and bent down and kissed and licked her arsehole, which was wet with my spunk and still a bit open from my cock. "That's enough" she said, and went and squatted on the bidet and washed her arse and her pussy, not letting me touch her.

After this, she went and made a late breakfast for us, and said, "I've been up all night and I'm working tonight, so I've got to get some sleep. Come to bed with me, and when I nod off, you'd better go home" We got into bed, and she rolled away from me. I curled up behind her and slid my hand round to her breasts, and stroked and squeezed her nipples. She didn't say anything, and I could feel a hard coming on, so I put my hand round to her pussy and stroked her clitty till I felt it harden, then I put my hand down to her pussy, which was nicely juiced, and I guided my cock into her. This time there was no hard pushing, just a steady sliding in and out. I was rubbing her clitty with one hand while the other fondled her breasts, and her lovely arse was against my belly. After quite a long time I came, with long slow strokes, and she said that that was the best sex yet. Then she pulled away from me and in a few moments I could tell from her breathing that she was asleep, so I slid out of bed, dressed and went home. As I went I made a note of her telephone number, because I was sure I would be coming back - and coming - many more times.
