WARNING: The following story contains graphic descriptions of sexual activity between a man and a young girl. If you are under the age of 18 or are offended by material of this nature, please read no further.

DISCLAIMER: This story is complete fiction and the subject of my imagination. If the detail reveals a lack of research, this is because there was none.

Any similarity to any other story or to real life is pure coincidence.

Enough of all that. Here's the story.

I looked down into her face. She was looking straight back into mine with an expectant look. Perhaps the look was a little wary or even fearful. The first time a girl kisses on the lips is always a momentous occasion whatever their age. I had always chosen girls of about 12. There is something special about a youngster who has just started to mature both physically and mentally.

The kiss then becomes a serious matter and not just a little game as the girl knows quite a bit from the comics she has read and the giggly chats she has had with girlfriends.

The ambivalence showing in their faces is so sexy, on the one side a little afraid and putting off the moment and, on the other, desperately wanting it because they have heard from friends claiming they already have, whether true or not.

This apprehension also produces considerable humour. One little girl I was cuddling was convinced that if she kissed a man on the lips then she would have a baby!

Inevitably, there is tension before you get to the kiss and I find that electrifying. That gradual winning process as the girl is seduced and finally ends up begging you to kiss her. Conquest is never sweeter.

On this occasion, I had been walking in the woods with another boy. He had a girlfriend and she came into the woods looking for him. She was with another younger girl and, when my friend decided to go off with his girlfriend, this 12 year old was left on her own with me.

She was a bit shy and nervous. I smiled to try and relax her and she smiled back.

"Do you want to go for a walk?" I asked.

"OK" she replied.

We walked deeper into the woods with me leading the way and the girl following.

Eventually, we reached a clearing and I sat down on a fallen tree trunk. The girl sat next to me but quite some distance away.

I had seen the girl before. She lived near me but I had never spoken to her. She was so young.

I asked her name and she told me.

"I already know yours" she said.

The girl obviously fancied me and I thought she was very pretty too.

She was quite tall with a nice bum and legs and a beautiful face framed in straight fair hair running halfway down her back.

She had started to develop and her breasts were like bumps pushing into the fabric of her short summer dress.

"I expect Damian has gone for a snog with your friend" I said.

The girl giggled.

"Probably" she replied.

"Do you fancy a cuddle?" I went on.

The girl looked startled. "Oh I don't know" she replied. "I don't think we should".

"OK" I said "Just thought I'd ask".

The girl was obviously reassured because I had not pushed it and moved a bit closer to me.

"Have you kissed lots of girls?" she asked.

"No" I replied "I love girls but they have always made me feel a bit nervous".

The girl giggled again and moved closer still.

As she then looked up into my eyes, I leant forward and kissed her on the nose.

The girl did not move and closed her eyes.

Our bodies were not touching as I now leant forward and just brushed her lips with my own.

It was very light and very brief.

It was also very one sided. The girl did not respond but she didn't move either. Her eyes remained closed.

I then leant forward again and gave her a series of little light kisses on her lips and, after about the third one, the girl started to respond by puckering her lips too.

As soon as she did, I withdrew.

"That was great" I said.

The girl opened her eyes and there was a wonder there which you always get after the first time even after a little kiss like that.

"Shall we kiss again?" I asked her and the girl just nodded. Our bodies were still not touching as I leant forward. The girl closed her eyes again in anticipation.

Once more, the kiss was very light but it was longer this time and I pulsed my lips a bit on hers.

The girl really enjoyed that because she then pulsed hers slightly too.

Our kiss started to grow stronger as our lips pulsed more and I then pushed my tongue through her lips and licked her teeth.

The girl pulled out of the kiss gasping but then immediately returned for more with the new kiss starting off strongly.

As it started, I put an arm around her shoulder and pulled her into me much more closely. I ran my fingers through her hair.

As I did, the kiss became even stronger and I found that I was allowed into her mouth so that our tongues could dance together.

The girl started to moan.

The kiss then grew even stronger and the girl put both her arms around my neck and held me very tightly.

As she did, I moved a hand onto her knee and lightly ran my fingers up the inside of her thigh.

I moved very slowly and, as I moved upwards under the hem of her dress, the girl started to moan.

She opened her legs as I went and so my fingers soon reached her panties. I then slowly rubbed her cunt with the tip of my index finger.

The girl gasped and pulled out of the kiss.

"No!" She cried.

"OK" I replied and I pulled right away from her so that our bodies were no longer touching.

The girl looked a bit crestfallen.

"Can't we just kiss without you doing that?" she asked.

I shrugged my shoulders. "Didn't you like it?" I asked.

"It's naughty" the girl replied.

"Who says so?" I went on.

"My mother says so" the girl persisted.

"Do you always do what your mother says?" I said, with me being persistent this time.

"No" she replied.

"Well then" I said.

While this exchange had been going on, we had both been looking forward and not at each other. Neither of us then said anything for quite a while.

"It did feel good" the girl finally said, looking up into my face again

I continued to say nothing.

"Will you do it again?" she asked

I continued to look ahead and just shrugged my shoulders.

"Please" she went on.

I looked back into her face.

"OK" I replied "but let's get more comfortable on the grass".

I then stood and the girl followed me over to an area of grass where we both sat down next to each other.

That apprehension was back on the girl's face.

"Lie back on the grass" I said and she did.

I then lay down beside her, leaning on an elbow so that my face was over hers.

I leant forward and kissed her on the lips very lightly.

The girl immediately responded and put both her arms around my neck and pulled me tighter into the kiss.

As the kiss then continued, I rested my hand on her knee and ran my fingers up the inside of her thigh as before.

The girl opened her legs as I moved upwards under her dress towards the top of her legs.

When I reached the top, I very slowly rubbed against her cunt.

The girl pulled out of the kiss, gasping, but then immediately returned for another.

Then, as the kiss continued, I edged my finger under the elastic of her panties and lightly rubbed her round her cunt lips.

The girl was wriggling her hips as I did, trying to get herself more deeply impaled on me and so I obliged, easing my finger into her cunt and finger fucking her. The kiss couldn't continue and she pulled out of it, struggling for breath.

I withdrew my finger as she did and pulled her on top of me then giving her little kisses all over her face and running a hand through her hair.

The girl was really moaning now as I pulled up the back of her dress and thrust my hand down inside her panties onto her bum.

The girl groaned and started to kiss me again, holding me so tightly round the neck I could hardly breath.

Then, as the kiss continued, I rolled her onto her back and ran my fingers up her tummy, pushing her dress up as I went.

When I reached her gorgeous little breasts, I immediately sunk my lips onto one and massaged it with my pulsing lips and licked it at the same time.

The girl withdrew from the kiss, gasping again and, as she did, I transferred to the other breast.

The girl now had a delightful little mesmerising smile on her face and threw her arms up above her head. I then withdrew from her breasts and gradually ran down her tummy with little kisses. When I reached the little tufts of pubic hair, I ruffled them with my nose before moving on to the top of her cunt and giving her little kisses all round it. The girl continued to lie completely still but her moans increased. I stopped briefly and pushed off my clothes before returning and easing the girl's panties down her legs and off. Afterwards, I positioned myself between her legs and lifted her thighs very gently up and apart before positioning my raging 10" prick at her entry and easing myself in. The resistance was considerable but I was feeling too much passion to stop or even hesitate and I pushed through her hymen and started to fuck her. As I did, I thrust my hands under her bum and lifted her cheeks off the ground. Every time I thrust in now, I was entering her a bit more and when I reached the end of her vaginal tunnel, she had taken most of my monstrous weapon. The girl had started her orgasms quite early on and they just kept on going. She had wrapped her legs around my waist and, every time she had one, her thighs tightened around my waist and her cunt pulsed on my prick. It was unbelievable. I couldn't take any more and so then speeded up with my thrusts and started to cum too. It was the best fuck I ever had.
