

Andrew's Story, part 2 (mbg, inc, mast, ped)

by this guy (thisguy.1066@gmail.com)

Summary: Two weeks after I shot my fifteen year old cum all over Aidan and Alice while I was giving them their bath I had the most amazing day...

That morning, as usual, I had gotten up before the twins. After a minute or so of rummaging through the clean clothes in the laundry basket I laid my hand on a pair of Aidan's Spiderman undies. When I wrapped them around my dick, so I could jerk-off into them, the strangest thing happened: my hard dick seemed to slip into some sort of pouch... Looking down at my pubic region I noticed that my dick had gone in through the fly in the undies.

I pulled Aidan's clean pair of Spiderman undies off my dick and thoroughly examined them. The front panel of the undies was made from two overlapping piece of fabric, with openings on opposite sides. The two layer front panel created two little pockets; one above the fly and one below it.

I slipped my dick into the longer, narrower pocket below the fly. A second later I had wrapped my fingers around my undies covered dick and began pumping my fist up-and-down the length of my fifteen-year-old dick. I couldn't have been pumping my fist up-and-down my dick for more than a few seconds before I got a really hot idea... Shortly thereafter I was yet again shooting my cum into my nine-year-old little bro's undies. I filled the little pocket below the fly in Aidan's Spiderman undies with my cum, and waited for my dick to go soft before pulling the undies off my dick.

Little more than a second later I was in the bedroom the twins shared. Alice was already awake, Aidan was still sleeping. I woke my little bro and told him to put on a clean pair of underwear, handing him the pair I had just shot my cum into. He wasn't fully awake when he sat up, but he removed the pair of Spiderman undies he had been sleeping in, and began pulling the pair I handed him up his legs. When the pair of clean freshly cummed in undies got to his knees, Aidan promptly fell off the bed with a thump.

Not wanting to waste any time, I offered to help him since he was still half-asleep; and pulled the just cummed in undies almost all of the way up. I took hold of his semi-hard nine-year-old dick and balls and gently pushed them half-way through/into the fly of his undies; then pulled the clean pair of just cummed in Spiderman undies the rest of the way up. From the quick change in his facial expression, I knew he felt the warmth and moistness of the sticky mess in the little pocket below the fly on his nine-year-old dick and balls. He smiled and said thanks before pressing his hand downward against his crotch. I could only assume he was moving his dick and balls further into the cum I had shot into his undies less than a minute before...

When I walked out of the twins' room, my dick was already hard from the knowledge that not only were my little bro's dick and balls soaking in my cum, but he actually liked it! Wow: that was such an incredibly hot thought!

It wasn't until a couple hours after we had finished breakfast that anything else happened. When I walked in the living room both Aidan and Alice were sitting on the couch. When I sat on the chair opposite them, Alice jumped off the couch and hopped on my lap. As usual, she started laughing and wiggling around. Again, as usual, her actions were making my dick go hard in my underpants.

For a while it was all pretty normal. That is until I happened to glance at Aidan: I wasn't all that surprised to see that his hand was on the front of his Spiderman undies. What was surprising however, was that he seemed to be trying to keep his hardening dick down in the little pouch I had filled with my cum. Damn; that was without a doubt one of the hottest things I'd ever seen!

Then, all of a sudden, the fabric on my dick felt different. I reached under my little sis's pink Disney princess pantie clad butt to see what had happened. My fingers touched bare skin: my dick. Somehow it had made its way out through the fly in my underwear, and was now rubbing against my little sis's pink Barbie princess panties as she was wiggling around on my lap. I couldn't believe it: my bare dick was rubbing up against my little sister's panties while she was wearing them and she didn't even notice. She just kept laughing and wiggling around on my lap.

Again I happened to glance at my little bro. It was hard to tell if he was still trying to keep his now mostly hard dick down in the little pouch I had filled with my cum, or if he was rubbing his dick through the fabric of his undies. Either way, it was a pretty hot sight to see.

It felt pretty good having my dick rubbing against my little sis's panties, so I didn't see any sense in trying to get my dick back into my underwear. I moved my hand away from Alice's butt and let her continue wiggling around on my lap. If, or more likely when, I shot my cum all over her panties; all I'd have to do is tell her to put on another pair...

A few seconds later I felt bare skin on my dick. God: it felt GREAT: a lot better than when I jerk-off. It was kinda like when I had Alice stroking my dick while we were in the tub, but better! This skin was softer and warmer: and wow did it feel good...better than anything I'd ever felt!

Again my little sis just kept laughing and wiggling around on my lap. Barely a second later the biggest load of cum I've ever shot, spewed out of my dick all over my little sis's nine-year-old upper thighs.

Or so I thought, until she asked how I had shot my stuff inside her panties on her butt... When I told her there was no way that could have happened, my little sis planted her feet on either side of my legs and promptly stood on the chair. She pulled her pink Disney princess panties down to the middle of her thighs, revealing the sticky white goo on her butt and the inside of the back of her panties.

I couldn't believe my eyes: how the hell could my dick have gotten into her panties! I did my best to not act too surprised, and simply told her she could just put on another pair of clean panties if she wanted to.

She shocked me by saying "no" as she hopped off the chair. When she grabbed her twin brother, just before she started pulling him into the bedroom they shared; I noticed that his dick was most definitely hard and still pointed down...almost certainly in the little pouch I had filled with my cum earlier. I had to wonder how the hell he had managed to keep his dick pointed down when it was all hard...

I had to tell my friend Chris about how I had just accidentally shot my cum into Alice's panties while she was wearing them. How could I not tell him: he was the one who suggested I shoot my cum into Alice's panties in the first place. I grabbed the phone and called him. In a matter of minutes I was telling him how I had shot my load while my little sis was sitting on my lap: that my dick had somehow made its way out through the fly in my underpants, how it had then somehow made its way into her panties, that it was the biggest load of cum I'd ever shot, and how my little sis had reacted after it happened.

Chris told me that it was awesome and he was gonna try to get his eight-year-old little sister to sit on his lap...and if anything happened he was gonna call me back.

Not more than ten seconds after hanging up the phone, I heard Alice say "yeah like that." I didn't really go into the bedroom the twins shared all the often (other than to get them out of bed in the morning), but curiosity got the best of me. When I stepped into their room I was amazed by what I saw: both Aidan and Alice were naked, my little bro was sitting on his bed and my little sis was sitting on his lap, her back against his chest. Seeing them sitting there like that was enough to make my dick get all hard. Alice was wiggling around on his lap and his hard dick between her thighs...WOW!

"Having fun?" I asked. Both of them simply smiled at me as Alice continued wiggling around on Aidan's lap.

"Watch this Andrew," Aidan said with pride. A second later I noticed that his dick began throbbing and some clear liquid oozed out of the little hole on its tip. Alice continued wiggling around on his lap and about thirty seconds later his dick started throbbing again. "Now," my little bro said, as my little sis rocked her hips in such a way that the top of the head of Aidan's dick was nestled just slightly in the bottom of her slit. Aidan let out a groan, and a single thin rope of white cum shot out of the little hole on the tip of his dick upwards as if using Alice's slit as a ramp...

HOLY SHIT!!! My nine-year-old little bro was not only having an orgasm, but shooting cum! “You wanna try?” Alice asked. Mesmerized by what I’d just seen, I couldn’t form words, so I yanked off my underpants and sat on Aidan’s bed next to him. Alice simply wiggled herself off my little bro’s lap and onto mine.

With a bit more wiggling my little sis had corralled my hard fifteen-year-old dick between her nine-year-old thighs. She began wiggling her butt around with my dick firmly held between her thighs: the top of my dick snuggled tightly against her slit.

Aidan got off the bed and stood in front of us. He bent forward; staring at where my dick was squeezed between his twin sister’s thighs. I was surprised to see that his nine-year-old dick was hard mere seconds after he had just shot a rope of cum...

Less than a minute after my little bro got off the bed the phone rang. I told him to go get the cordless phone and bring it in. Naked, he ran out of the room to get the phone. All the while Alice continued wiggling around on my lap: my hard dick clenched tightly between her thighs. Aidan handed me the phone; I answered it: it was my friend Chris.

In the first two second we were on the phone Chris said that he’d just squirted his cum with his little sister sitting on his lap. I asked him to hold on for a second, put my finger over the microphone part of the phone, and asked the twins if they wanted to hear about how Chris had just shot his cum when his little sister was sitting on his lap. Both Aidan and Alice seemed practically giddy when they said “yes” at the same time. I told Chris I was going to put him on speaker so the twins could hear: he was real hesitant until I told him that Alice was naked and sitting on my lap with my dick between her thighs, then he said okay.

I pushed the “speaker” button on the phone and handed it to my little bro telling him to hold it up so we could all hear.

After a second of silence Chris began telling us what happened;

So, after we finishing talking earlier I found Laura playing in her room. I sat on her bed and asked if she wanted to try playing a game I just heard about called ‘bouncy-sit’. She said yes, so I told her to sit on my lap. Once she was on my lap I began bouncing up-and-down on the bed.

It kinda sucked at first, ‘casue she wasn’t moving around on my lap at all. So, I started tickling her belly. That got her giggling and squirming around on my lap. It felt great the way her butt was moving around on my dick...

After a while she started telling me to bounce faster: I did and it felt even better. So much better that my dick stated throbbing! It didn’t take long for my dick to explode in my boxers. Talk about a sticky mess... But my dick didn’t go soft, so I just kept tickling Laura’s belly and bouncing on her bed.

Maybe a minute after I filled my boxers with cum she asked her butt felt wet. I told her it was just sweat, since it's so hot; and kept tickling her belly and bouncing on her bed.

Another couple minutes of bouncing and my dick exploded again! I never shot cum twice in such a small amount of time! Geez: I was panting hard and sweating like a pig...

Anyway, when Laura got up off my lap, her whole butt area was wet; just like the front of my boxers...

Well...I gotta go; tell ya more later." With that Chris hung up.

"Oh man..." Aidan said as he pushed the 'call end' button on the phone.

"So, does Chris shoot in his sister's undies too?" Alice asked, while still wiggling around on my lap.

"Yeah," I answered, "but it's a secret so you can't tell anybody."

"Did he learn it from you; or you from him?" Aidan asked.

"He told me about it," I replied, "but Laura doesn't know, so don't tell anybody," I reiterated.

"You're dick's starting to bounce," Aidan commented, bending down and looking closely at my hard fifteen-year-old dick.

"Oh god," I groaned as the first shot of my cum rocketed out of my dick, up Alice's slit and hit Aidan square on the nose.

"Cool," Aidan chirped as he bent in closer. The second shot of cum followed the same path as the first...onto my little bro's face. As did the third, fourth and fifth shots.

Once my dick stopped shooting cum, Alice asked, "Can we go swimming in the pool?"

"Sure," I replied. Alice hopped off my lap. She and her twin brother ran naked out into the backyard and jumped in the pool. I was only a few steps behind them.

Alice was swimming laps completely naked.

Aidan and I were doing little more than squatting in the shallow end of the pool.

Curiosity having gotten the better of me, I ask, “How did you keep your hard dick down in little pouch in your undies earlier?”

“Well, it kinda hurt but felt good at the same time,” he explained before suggesting, “you should try it.”

“Maybe I will,” I commented with a chuckle.

Smiling my little bro asked, “Can you shoot in the little pouch in my undies again?”

“Course I can...”
